

Midwest Relativity Meeting 2008

Third Circular

We are looking forward to your attendance next week Friday and Saturday Oct. 24-25 at the Midwest Relativity Meeting (MWRM18) at the University of Notre Dame.

The preliminary program and list of participants has been posted to the conference web site <http://www.nd.edu/~astro/MWRM18/>. All talks will be held in Rm 101 Jordan Hall of Science (see map at the conference web site). Please note that all talks are 15 min. + 5 min. discussion. There will be a computer available if you bring your talks on a thumb drive. Otherwise, you can plug in your laptop at the podium.

We look forward to seeing you next week!
